1 Who should sign the form

It depends who the authority is for. See the table below.

Who the authority is for	Who signs the form
Yourself (for your personal tax)	You
Companies	The secretary or other responsible officer of the company
Partnerships	The partner responsible for the partnership's affairs. It applies only to the partnership. Individual partners need to sign a separate authority for their own affairs.
Trusts	One or more of the trustees

2 What else you should do

- If you have more than one agent acting with us on your behalf, please sign one of these forms for each one and send them to us with a letter telling us which agent deals with what for you. If you deal with more than one Inland Revenue office, please send it to just one office and we will pass on the information.
- If your agent doesn't deal with all your Inland Revenue affairs, please send a letter with this form giving us details of those that they do deal with.

3 What the Inland Revenue does

- Once we have received your completed form we will start sending letters and forms to your agent. But sometimes we need to send them to you as well as, or instead of, your agent. Contact any Inland Revenue office if you would like information about what will be sent to you and/or your agent.
- We don't send anyone completing a Corporation Tax Self Assessment return a Statement of Account.
- We don't send National Insurance statements and requests for payment to your agent unless you have asked us if you can defer payment.

4 Data Protection Act

The Inland Revenue is a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act. We hold information for the purposes specified in our notification made to the Data Protection Commissioner, and may use this information for any of them.

We may get information about you from others, or we may give information to them. If we do, it will only be as the law permits, to

- check accuracy of information
- prevent or detect crime
- protect public funds.

We may check information we receive about you with what is already in our records. This can include information provided by you as well as by others such as other government departments and agencies and overseas tax authorities. We will not give information about you to anyone outside the Inland Revenue unless the law permits us to do so.
